

In Loving Memory

To Those I Love And Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me. Let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy, we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I travel alone.

So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless those memories in your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near with all my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome You Home".

Principles of Life

Unconditional Love: Always there for others no matter what.

Respect: Given so I may receive it in return.

Universal Acceptance: I am who I am, and you are what you are, I can't change that – why waste the time

Living: We all die. Some sooner, some later in life. God decides for us. The real question is "How we decide to live our life each day."

Death: I am not afraid of death, only the process.

Harold enlisted in 1973 and was assigned to his qual boat, the USS Bluefish (SSN-675) from 1973 to 1979.

Harold then rode the USS Seawolf (SSN-575) from 1983 to 1985. He was promoted to Chief while assigned aboard the Seawolf.

He was assigned to the Sub Tender USS Orion (AS-18) from 1985 to 1988 and finally to the USS Parche (SSN-683) from 1988 to 1991 and retired in 1993.

Harold Weber was a member of Perch Base in 2016.
