Subject: Luke Days Static Display

-----
This coming Saturday and Sunday are "Luke Days" at the Luke Air Force Base in West Glendale. Our Base will have the float as a static display in a very favorable location during these two days. The map, below, shows the location where our float will be. Everyone who has not already been pre-cleared by Air Force security must enter as a regular visitor to the event.

Check the local news media for the location of the visitor parking lots from which a shuttle will take you into the base. Come on out and see a great show (this is the first time in three years that Luke has had an open house) and stop by and see our set up.
